We, the Aquila staff of 1962, in loving memory do dedicate this yearbook to our former classmate and friend—FRED FLY.

If there was one phrase to describe Fred, it would be "a friend." He always had a smile and a cheerful word for everyone. During his years at Central High School he was always a leader in his class, in sports, and in various student activities.

This dedication cannot compensate for the loss which we have suffered. It is only a symbolic memorial from his classmates who will always remember.

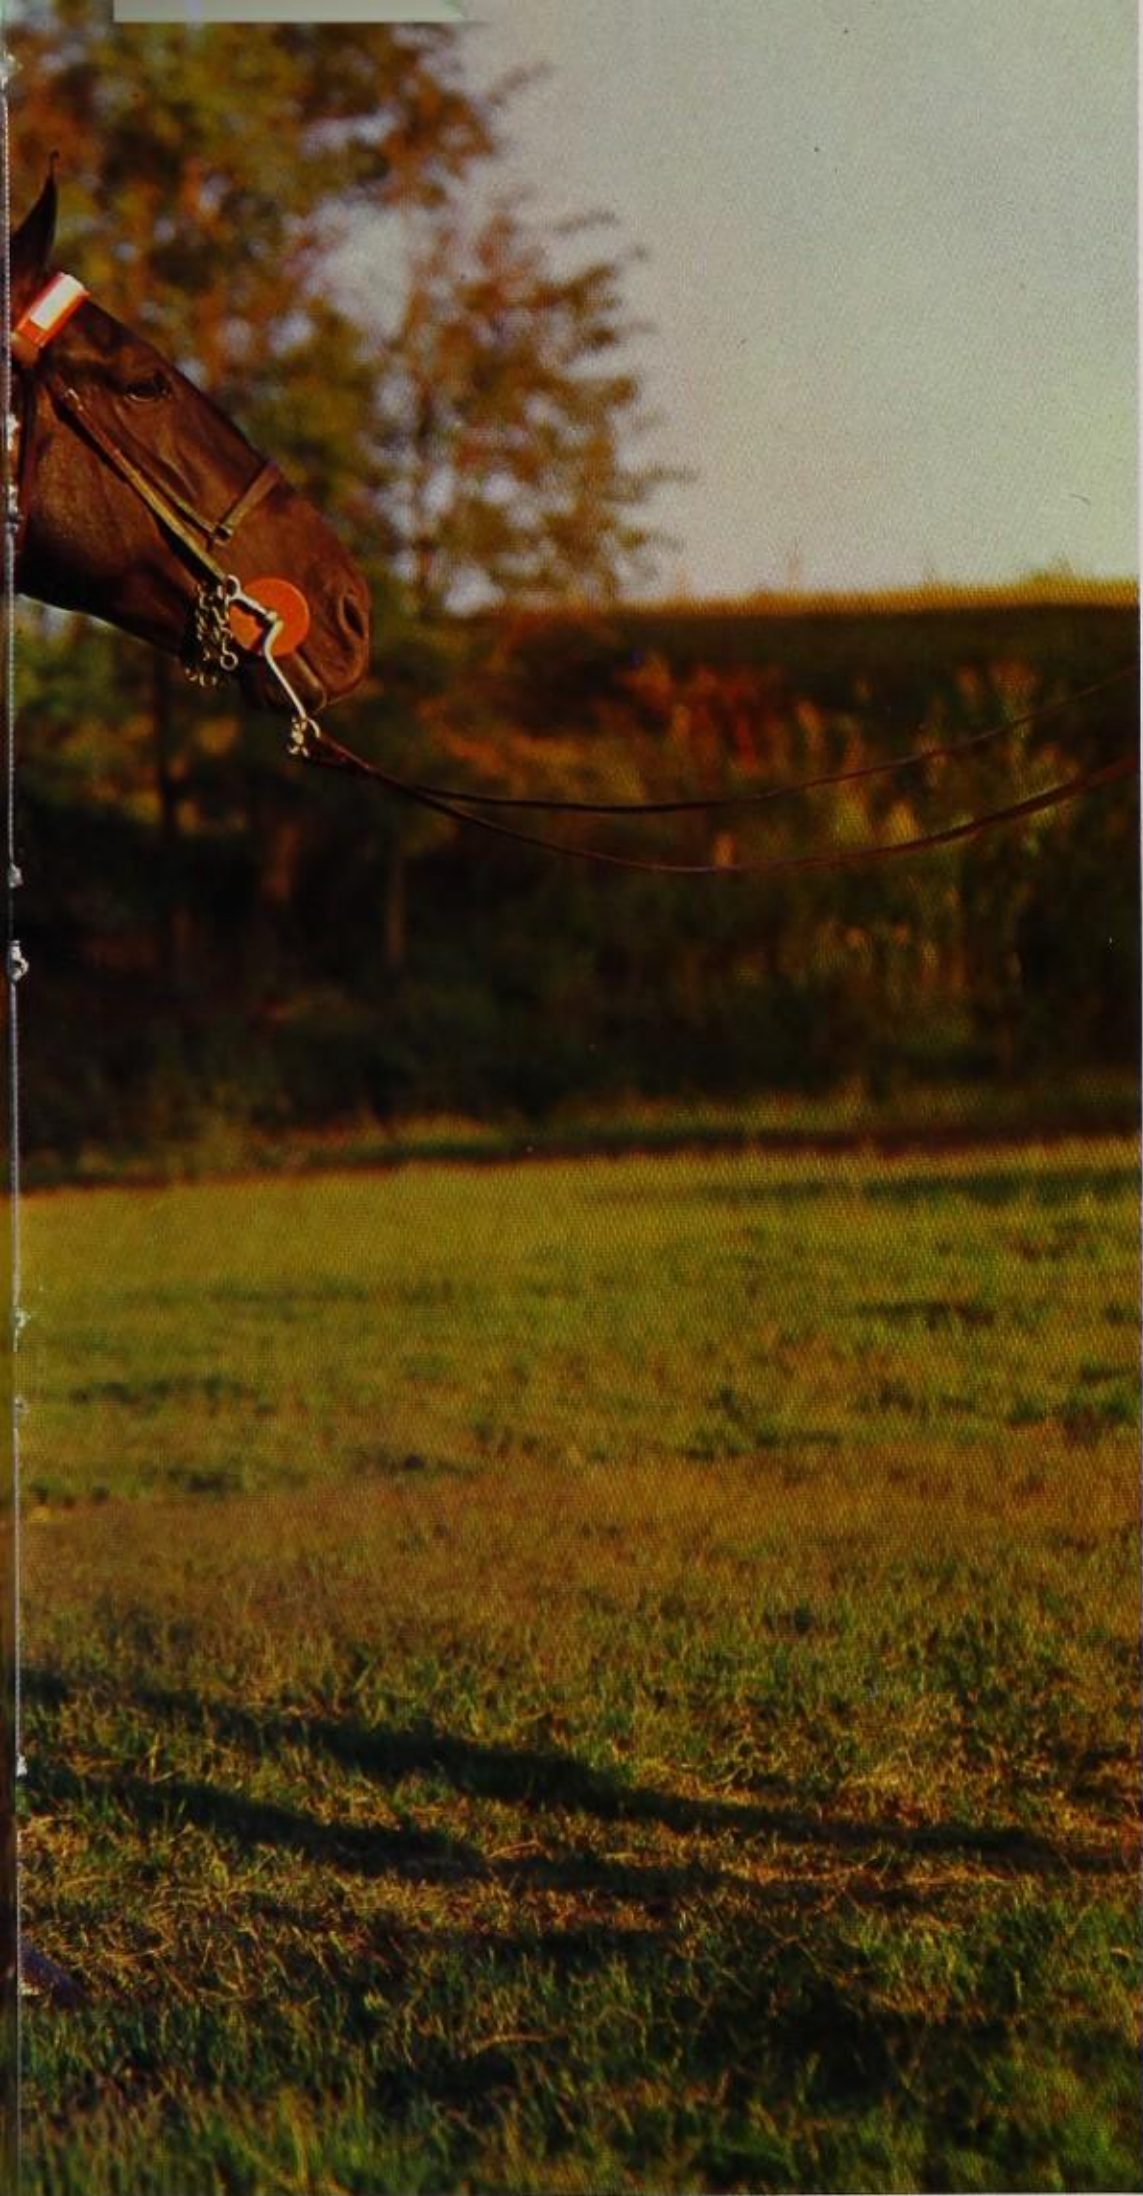

One of the most familiar scenes in Bedford County is the U. S. Post Office, which was built in 1914.

The Black House was built before the Civil War. A cannon ball was accidentally shot through its walls when the Confederates and the Yankees met in a battle nearby.

MRS. JAMES K. GORE

Because of a great number of outside activities, Mrs. Gore felt it necessary to retire at Christmas of this year. Her students will miss her very much and will remember her as an excellent teacher and friend.

MRS. ROBERT CRAIG

Replacing Mrs. Adcock in the English and Spanish departments the last semester of this year is Mrs. Craig.

MRS. PRUITT STOKES

Since the retirement of Mrs. Gore, Mrs. Stokes has been teaching in the History and English department.

A Letter of Appreciation

The work of the 1962 AQUILA STAFF is drawing to a close. It is with some regret and anxiety that we close our work on the annual. Regret . . . for we have enjoyed every minute of our work, and soon these experiences will be memories, but they'll be memories we'll never forget. Anxiety . . . for we are eager to see your reaction to our 1962 AQUILA. We feel that we have published an annual unlike any published in the past at CHS. WE sincerely hope that as you turn the pages of this yearbook, you will note our efforts to help you retain the "fond" memories of this 1961-62 school year.

Our work will not be complete until we express our appreciation to those who have made our yearbook possible by so willingly giving their time and efforts. We say a very special "Thank You" to our sponsor, Mr. Patterson; his guidance and opinions have played a vital part in our publication. Words cannot amply express our gratitude to Mr. May, who has worked so co-operatively with us. We especially appreciate the secretarial duties of Mrs. Wallheiser. Her consideration and patience have been invaluable. No yearbook is possible without the co-operation of the faculty and students. We truly have received whole-hearted co-operation from them in every way. Last, but not least, we would like to thank the business firms whose submission of advertisements has enabled our staff financially to publish this annual. We urge you to patronize these firms.

It has certainly been a privilege and pleasure for us to publish this 1962 AQUILA. We hope that it will bring to you much enjoyment now and in the years to come.

Sincerely,

ALBEN SIMMONS
